

Multi Level Governance: Scotland, England, Wales, Northern Ireland In Europe

Glasgow Caledonian University (Hospitality Suite Hamish Wood Building) 19th February 2013

9.00 – 9.15 Registration

Session 1 Opening Session (chair: Duncan McTavish, Glasgow Caledonian University)

9.20 -9.30 Welcome Address. John Wilson, Executive Dean and Pro Vice Chancellor, GCU

9.30 -10.00 Keynote Speaker - Nicola Sturgeon, Scotland's Deputy First Minister

10.00 -10.30 Multi Level Governance and the Courts: A Comparative Perspective of Judicial Review of Devolution and Federations. Matt Qvortrup, Cranfield University

10.30-11.00 Tea / Coffee

11.00 -11.30 Comparative Perspective: Europe and the UK. Edoardo Ongaro, Northumbria University

11.30 -12.00 Q&A

12.00 -13.00 Lunch

Session 2 Multi Level Governance and Devolved Polities (chair: Karen Johnston Miller, GCU)

13.00 -14.15 Scotland. Paul Cairney (Aberdeen University)

Wales. Laura McAllister (Liverpool University)

Northern Ireland. Colin Knox (University of Ulster)

14.15 -14.30 Q&A

Session 3 Multi Level Governance: Local and Other Perspectives (chair: Margaret Arnott, UWS)

14.30 -15.15 Local Governance. John Fenwick (Northumbria University)

Philanthropy and Multi Level Governance. Tobias Jung (Cass Business School)

15.15 -15.30 Q&A

15.30 -15.45 Coffee / Tea

Session 4 Summative Session (chair: Claire Dunlop, Exeter University)

15.45 -16.15 Multi Level Governance: Critical Perspectives. Andrew Massey, Exeter University

16.15 -16.30 Closing Remarks. Joyce Liddle, Chair JUC Public Administration Committee

This seminar is supported by Glasgow Caledonian University, JUC Public Administration Committee, Political Studies Association